Landscape Painting Retreat

Join us for an exciting 6 days in beautiful Hot Springs, Arkansas for a Landscape Painting Retreat open to intermediate and advanced artists.

This workshop is going to be relaxed and open, and you will have ample time in the evenings to explore everything that Hot Springs National Park has to offer.

The workshop will be led by internationally known artist Patrick Cunningham, known for his paintings, murals, landscapes, and portraits using both classical realism and impressionistic styles. This is a workshop for intermediate to advanced painters who wish to improve their landscape painting skills using mixed media techniques, including acrylics, oils, and proprietary glazes and textures developed by artist Patrick Cunningham. Each artist will take home a finished painting of "The Quaking Aspens" as pictured above.

We have a full 6-day schedule planned on-site and fantastic events and activities during your stay. For more information, see planned schedule and to secure your tickets visit our website below.

LANDSCAPE PAINTING RETREAT WITH

ARTIST PATRICK CUNNINGHAM

April 29, 2025 to May 4, 2025

We are thrilled to announce our new landscape painting workshop and retreat for intermediate to advanced painters at the beautiful and historic Seventh Street Sanctuary Vacation Rental Home in Hot Springs National Park, Arkansas.

The Seventh Street Sanctuary is a beautifully restored 1890s home featuring 6 large bedrooms and 4 bathrooms, located just minutes from Oaklawn Racing and Casino and downtown Hot Springs. Hot Springs National Park, Arkansas is known for its historic bathhouse row, healing ancient thermal springs, mountain views, and beautiful hikes, all in the middle of town.

The workshop will be led by internationally known artist Patrick Cunningham, known for his paintings, murals, landscapes, and portraits using both classical realism and impressionistic styles. This is a workshop for intermediate to advanced painters who wish to improve their landscape painting skills using mixed media techniques, including acrylics, oils, and proprietary glazes and textures developed by artist Patrick Cunningham. The workshop is limited to 10 participants.

Each participant will create a painting "The Quaking Aspens" to take home and a booklet that details the techniques taught during the workshop. All art supplies will be provided.

A continental breakfast is included, as well as a welcome dinner and a pizza and movie night. Lunch will be on your own, but you can prepare your own meal from our sandwich bar in the spacious kitchen. Water, coffee, tea, and snacks will also be provided. Every day: Lots of food, fun, camaraderie, relaxation. and re-winding.
